NIGHT OF THE LIVING DEAD

Dean Lachiusa, a fan of George Romero's NIGHT OF THE LIVING DEAD, has re-edited the film, which is in the public domain. He has named his "version" of the film NIGHT OF THE LIVING DEAD: SURVIVORS CUT.

Lachiusa has added a new beginning and various new elements including flashbacks to show more about Barbara and Johnny, along with some radio broadcasts to flesh out the story a bit more.

The [trailer] is available now in Real format and/or can be downloaded:
